While they were puzzling over this, behold, two men in dazzling garments appeared to them. They were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground. They said to them, “Why do you seek the living one among the dead?” (Luke 24:2-5)		Saturday Vigil & Sunday Readings First Reading: He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. (Acts 10:38) Psalm: This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Psalm 118) Or: Alleluia. Second Reading: If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. (Colossians 3:1) Gospel: Then they returned from the tomb and announced all these things to the eleven and to all the others. The women were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James; the others who accompanied them also told this to the apostles, but their story seemed like nonsense and they did not believe them. (Luke 24: 9-11)
